

-Student Home (Mobile app and Website), my third year university project. The Student Home is for college students to know attendance, marks, time table and university news and more. (2013).

-Book Library system (Windows application). I create a book library system for Tishk Privet Institute for computer science . Student can read borrow book from university. (2019)